Jose Marti, Leader of the Patriots, NEW YORK, June 3 .- The Herald says: According to a report received in New York, Jose Marti, the civil leader of the Cuban uprising, is not dead. Benjamin J. Guerra, of this city, treasurer of the Cuban revolutionary party in the United States, has received a message from Gen. Gomez, commander-in-chief of the insurgent forces, saying that Marti still lives, and was not even wounded. The message came through the General's son, who is in Monte Christi, San Domingo. It reads simply: "Maestro lives," "Maestro," the master, is the name by which Cubans know Marti.

A dispatch received at Key West, from Havana, says that a lieutenant of the civil guard, who was acting chief of police at Puerto Principe has deserted. He succeeded in getting on board a pilot boat, from which ne was transshipped to a steamer bound for Liverpool. The cause of his desertion is his fear of being brought to justice by the captain-general, Marshal Martinez de Campos, who is known to have been displeased the lieutenant's action in exceeding the limits of his authority while pursuing the band of insurgents commanded by Maurice Montejo.

There was great rejoicing at Key West last night among the Cubans, when the telegram from Benjamin Guerra, stating that Jose Marti is alive, was received and in order to celebrate the event a meeting of Cubans was called for midnight at the San Carlos Theater. The news that Marti was well in health was received with loud cheering and addresses were made by a number of prominent Cubans. Later the Cubans formed in line and, with a band at their head, paraded the streets until daylight, cheering for Marti and indulging in other manifestations of joy In addition, the Cubans took a holiday to-day and as none of them will work, nearly all the cigar factories will be closed. A dispatch from Jacksonville, Fla., says: Gonzales de Quesada, secretary of the Cuban revolutionists, arrived here to-day. He received a telegram from Benjamin Guerra, treasurer of the revolutionists, at New York, as follows: "Pancheto Gomez cables that Marti lives. All passengers from Santiago, including Portuondo's wife, believe him alive. I believe it so, and have telegraphed to all. Cheer up." "If he is dead," he says, then he has been assassinated, as he would not have been on the field of battle. He is the civil leader, and there are enough generais to lead the fighting without his doing so. However, even if he were dead, it would make no difference to the cause. It would go on just the same because it is a fight not of men, but of principles." Brushes with Insurgents.

HAVANA, June 3.-Lieutenant Tjurea has had a brush with the insurgents on the banks of the Contramaestre river, in the province of Santiago de Cuba. One soldier was killed. The column of troops under the command of Colonel Sandoval has also exchanged shots with the insurgents, who lost two killed and left one wounded man upon the field. On the side of the troops, one guide and two soldiers were wounded The insurgents commanded by Suarez in the Province of Puerto Principe, being fired on by a detachment of troops, left on the field two killed and three wounded. In addition the troops captured fourteen saddled horses. Colonel Matorelle, operating against the insurgents with a detachment of troops, came across a band of insurgents, consisting of fifty infantry and ten cavalry in the district of Joborosado. He pursued the enemy to the Leborrucal mountains, in the province of Santa Clara, the insurgents eaving three dead behind them. The troops also captured a quantity of arms and ten horses, one of which was killed. The insurgents have succeeded in burning Fort Bonisto, which was in course of construction at Moron, a short distance north of Santiago de Cuba. Lieutenant Colonel Tejeda has taken prisoner a lieutenant of the insurgents, who declares that the latter are dispirited since the death of Jose Marti. He confirms the report that Maximo Gomez s wounded, as are Bellito and Lora also. the troops were fired on by insurgents between Victoria de Las Tunas and Puerto lel Padre, but the attack was repulsed, the resulting loss to the rebels being two wounded and two prisoners. Maceo's band effinentigeats has burned a plantation in Gunth's amo, lelonging to the heirs of Indianapolis Failed to Get the Last of the Series from Milwaukee.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 3 .- A bad play by Roat in the second inning to-day practically won the game for Milwaukee. There were three men on the bases in the second when Bolan hit a grounder to Roat, and in throwing the ball to the plate to cut off Twitchell Roat threw over McFarland's head, and four runs came in. These runs may not have won the game for the "Brewers," but they gave Milwaukee a lead that was never overcome. Indianapolis started out in the lead, scoring two in the first on errors by Klopf and Long and hits by Newell and McCarthy. In the second, however, Milwaukee went to the front on Roat's bad throw, and in the fourth two more were added on Klopf's getting hit with a ball and a triple by Weaver and single by Twitchell. got another, bringing the score up to 7 to 2 in favor of the "Brewers." In the fifth Indianapolis very nearly tied the score by pounding Rettger's pitching for four runs. Hogan led off with a home run and McCarthy followed his example. Hits by Motz, Roat and McFarland came in quick succession, and two more runs resulted, bringing the score up to 7 to 6. This was of little use. however, as Milwaukee went in and pounded out three in her half of the sixth. The field work of both teams was at times very bad, but at times again it was brilliant.

The Indianapolis team left for St. Paul at 7 o'clock to-night, and is in good shape to meet the team of the Twin City. Manager Watkins stated that he did not expect to lose more than two games there, if he lost that many. Score: Milwaukee. A.B. R. H. O. A. E.

And it would not surprise me if it turned out that the race of 1895 was the last. PATERSON, N. J., June 3.-Park Superintendent McCrowe found a lump of loam glistening with gold while digging in the side of the hill near Passale river. About an ounce of gold was washed from the loam. Workmen who are making a driveway along the hill at the eastern end of East-side Park had dug down ten feet. when the gold was discovered. When it became known that gold had been found in the public park boys and men went out with shovels to seek their fortunes. Several boys found lumps of loam containing small particles of gold. us unawares. The patients have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint, all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. Lyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After awhile a cough sets in, at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish colored expectoration. The patient feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow; the urine is scanty and high-colored, depositing

All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for liver complaint, some for dyspepsia, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with

GOLD IN NEW JERSEY.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 3 .- A Charleston special says that it came to the ears of Mrs. Ella Moran, of that city, that Bernard Conley, a neighbor, had circulated a story that reflected on her reputation for virtue. Last night she and her husband, Otis, and her brother, Joseph Henson, called Conley out of his house. He was tied to a fence. where he was laid partly across a rail. His shirt was stripped from him and, while the two men held Conley, Mrs. Moran laid a cowhide across his bare back until the blood came. The assailants are under arrest, but they have the sympathy of the community.
